

Thread cutting system WKK-S4

Heavy duty rotating design

Thread cutting system Heavy Duty WKK-S4

|                                        |                                                         |             |
|----------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------|-------------|
| Weight                                 | 135 kg                                                  |             |
| Working range pipe thread K1/16        | R1-6" DIN EN ISO 102261-11.5-4-8NPTANSI B1.20.1 |             |
|                                        | mm                                               | inch |
| Max. pitch                             | 3.175                                                   | 8 t.p.i.    |
| Chaser holders                         | see table for holders                                   |             |
| Max. thread length for tapered threads | 57                                                      | 2.244       |

Accessories:

Setting device with dial gauge

